

THURSDAY, MAY 5, 2011

SPORTS

THE NEWS SUN

Softball

Knights win conference contest

OSSIAN — Natalie Kovets and MacKenzie Williams combined for a one-hit shutout as East Noble defeated Norwell 12-0, Wednesday night. The Knights improved to 9-4, 3-0 in the NHC. They have won four straight games.

Behind the two strong-armed pitches, East Noble's defense had zero errors. Kovets struck out six and gave up no hits, while Williams closed the final two innings with three Ks and a hit allowed.

In the bat themselves, East Noble ripped 10 hits as a team.

Rebecca Williams led the way with a 3-for-4 line with a home run and four RBI. Kerri Schrock and Michaela Corbin added two hits apiece. Schrock also pushed across two runs.

East Noble looks to continue its winning ways against Concordia today.